

BOOTH 2154

V&A (Victoria and Albert Museum)

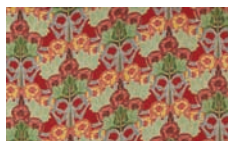

www.vandalicensing.com

GLOBAL PARTNER

V&A Textile Collections

The V&A national collection of textiles spans more than 2,000 years. It has a broad geographic range with a particular emphasis on European textiles.

Patterns include; florals, stripes, geometrics, modern, graphics, illustrated, novelty. Most techniques are represented, including woven, printed and embroidered textiles, lace, jacquard, silks, tapestries and carpets.

V&A Textile Collections

V&A Fashion and Costume Collections

Fashion from the V&A, the world's greatest museum of art and design. It features fashionable dress from the 17th century to the present day, with the emphasis on progressive and influential designs from the major fashion centres of Europe.

The collections also include accessories such as shoes, handbags and gloves.

V&A Jewellery Collections

V&A Fashion and Costume Collections

V&A Jewellery Collections

The V&A has one of the finest and most comprehensive jewellery collections in the world. More than 16,000 pieces with historical importance, from Byzantium, through to some of the finest designs from the great jewellery houses of the 20th century as well as by important contemporary makers.

V&A Prints, Drawings and Wallpaper Archives

A magnificent collection of fine art prints, printmaking techniques and commercial graphics, as well as periodicals and manuscripts and access to more than a million items, including one of the finest collections of wallpapers in the world. Historic wallpapers from 15th century to contemporary, with examples from across the globe.

V&A Prints, Drawings and Wallpaper Archives

V&A Photographic Archives

The V&A began acquiring photographs in 1852 and its collection is now one of the largest and most important in the world. It holds over 500,000 images, by both classic and contemporary photographers, and illustrates a wide range of processes, techniques and subject matter.

V&A Photographic Archives